

Hear about similar loan application situations.

Hear the family positive opinions and also concerns of people who went through the same situation of stepping away from their job to pursue a new business

Hear clear and easy-to-understand answers when questions are asked during the process.

Hear from bank representatives about the risks and complexities of the loan.

Hear the opinion of the loan officer regarding the choices in the loan process.

Provide feedback to the bank after the service.

Motivated: The professional experience makes him motivated to proceed with the loan.
Hopeful: He hopes that the loan will be approved due to his long-term relation and loyalty with the bank.
Efficiency: Expects a fast and efficient process without any problem or miscommunication.

Cautious: Does not want to put a financial burden on the family.
Uncertainty: Concerned about the whole loan application process.
Stressed: The loan application process can consume a lot of his time.
Hopes that the technology literacy does not affect the loan.

Recommend the bank to other colleagues that need to take care of similar processes

Would like to receive assistance in the process.

Would like to receive straightforward answers about the process if needed

Write online reviews about the process.

User-Friendly Simulator
The application must be easy to use

Login and face recognition system must work well.

Customer support available when needed

Receive all the notifications with the updates with no delays.

The documentation section is well explained.

Get in contact with actual bank employees if needed

Feedback questionnaire is not to long.

